MAX CLELAND CONGRESSIONAL GOLD MEDAL ACT OF 2016

HON. SANFORD D. BISHOP, JR.

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 22, 2016

Mr. BISHOP of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, I want to recognize the extraordinary contributions to our nation by Max Cleland, who served as a United States Senator from Georgia between 1997 and 2003, by introducing the Max Cleland Congressional Gold Medal Act of 2016.

Max Cleland's life in public service began as a young man when he joined the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Stetson University. Following his graduation, he volunteered to serve as an Army Officer in Vietnam, where he was awarded the Silver Star for his bravery at the Battle of Khe Sanh. He later suffered extensive injuries in combat, ultimately losing both of his legs and his right arm. Facing an uncertain future while recovering at Walter Reed Army Medical Center, Senator Cleland fought to overcome his injuries with both resilience and sheer fortitude.

Following his release from Walter Reed, Cleland became the youngest member of the Georgia State Senate in 1970. Seven years later, he was appointed to head the Veterans Administration by President Jimmy Carter. Cleland then served as Georgia's Secretary of State from 1982 to 1996, after which he was elected to the United States Senate, where he represented Georgia for six years. In the U.S. Senate, Cleland advocated for veterans and a strong national defense, helped to institute significant reforms at the U.S. Department of Defense, and became a respected leader in Congress. Upon leaving the Senate, he served on the 9/11 Commission and is currently the Secretary of the American Battle Monuments Commission, a position to which he was appointed by President Obama in 2009.

As a leader on behalf of veterans for over four decades, Senator Cleland has overcome immeasurable obstacles and demonstrated how disabilities do not have to hinder having an accomplished and fulfilled life. His service, life, and fortitude in the face of adversity are indeed an example for us all.

The Congressional Gold Medal is the proper means to honor this distinguished American who has given so much and continues to work tirelessly on behalf of the entire nation. I urge my colleagues to support this measure.

CLEMENTS HIGH SCHOOL'S ANGELA LIN NAMED H&R BLOCK BUDGET CHALLENGE SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

HON. PETE OLSON

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 22, 2016

Mr. OLSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to congratulate Clements High School senior Angela Lin of Sugar Land, TX for winning the H&R Block Budget Challenge grand prize scholarship.

With two older brothers attending the University of Houston, college tuition was going to pose a challenge for Angela. So she worked hard and entered the Bucket Challenge and won a $120,000 scholarship from a competitive field of 150,000 students. The challenge was a 10-week financial literacy competition in which she developed spreadsheets, made choices on insurance deductibles, planned how to spend paychecks and how to pay bills. Angela's hard work paid off and she plans to earn a double major in management systems and marketing with a potential minor in entrepreneurship. Angela's potential is limitless.

On behalf of the Twenty-Second Congressional District of Texas, congratulations again to Angela Lin on winning the H&R Block Budget Challenge scholarship. Keep up the great work, and keep on pursuing your dreams Angela.
